Mrs. Eisenhower Undergoes Surgery At Army Hospital; No Emergency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower underwent a two-hour internal operation by a gynecologist at Walter Reed Army Hospital today.

An announcement after the operation said she came through in "good condition."

The President remained at the White House, in conference with Republican leaders and engaged in other appointments. But he kept in touch with the hospital by telephone.

It was understood that the operation dealt with a rather common female disorder.

The White House would say only that the surgery dealt with a "benign condition"—not cancerous—and had been planned for some time. It was not an emergency operation.

The surgeon was Dr. Humbert L. Riva, a colonel in the Army Medical Corps, a gynecologist.

Mrs. Eisenhower, 60, was reported by White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty to be in "good condition" following the surgery.

She entered the operating room at Walter Reed shortly after 7 a.m. c.d.t. this morning and was removed at 9:15 a.m.

Her admission to the hospital was kept secret until the President was informed of the results of the operation.

Mrs. Eisenhower spent most of last week in Denver. She went there primarily for the dedication of a city park named in her honor, and returned here Saturday afternoon in time to preside at a family dinner in observance of her son John's 35th birthday.

Mrs. Eisenhower's close associates have said the First Lady "never has been strong" and is "not robust."

Snyder makes a practice of seeing Mrs. Eisenhower almost daily when she is in Washington.

Ford Official Says Seat Belts Would Cut Highway Fatalities

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Ford Motor Co. official said today use of seat belts in all cars and trucks would cut the nation's highway deaths by more than 50 per cent.

Moreover, he said use of the controversial belts in all cars and trucks would cut in half the number of serious injuries resulting from traffic accidents.

Ford Vice President Robert S. McNamara said in a statement prepared for the House traffic safety subcommittee:

"It is our opinion that the use of seat belts in all cars and trucks on the American road today would reduce the 40,000 fatalities annually to less than 19,000 and would reduce the 1,000,000 serious injuries to no more than 500,000."

Alex L. Haynes, Ford advanced product study director, said in presenting McNamara's statement that "tests and experience have proved beyond all reasonable doubt that seat belts are the most effective single item available in reducing traffic injuries and deaths."

"Ford Motor Company strongly recommends the use of seat belts in all cars and trucks," he said.

Haynes said seat belts are "not a panacea for all accident injuries."

But he said they will "materially reduce critically forces imposed on vehicle occupants at any speed whether the seat belts remain intact or not."

He said they also "tend to keep the passenger inside the car" where chances of serious injury are cut 50 per cent.

Haynes said in prepared testimony that Ford has sold more safety belts than the rest of the automobile industry combined.

He said since 1956 Ford sold 160,000 vehicles equipped with seat belts and supplied 200,000 more to dealers for installation.

However, he said the company is disturbed because the rate of seat belt installation has fallen off in the last few months.

Kenneth P. Butterfield, staff forester on the Shawnee National Forest, will transfer to Rhineland, Wis., it was announced today by Supervisor L. P. Neff. Mr. Butterfield has been promoted to the position of Forest Supervisor of the Nicolet National Forest.

The Butterfields will move to Rhineland about August 25.

Mr. Butterfield began his career with the Forest Service in 1934 on the Cumberland National Forest in Kentucky. Subsequent assignments took him to Vermont, New Hampshire and to West Virginia where he became district ranger. He assumed his present duties on the staff at the Shawnee National Forest in 1955.

In announcing the transfer Mr. Neff said, "Ken Butterfield has done an excellent job on the Shawnee, and is well deserving of the promotion to Forest Supervisor."

Sponsor of the forestry camp is the Illinois Technical Forestry Association. Several wood producing and using industries, farm organizations and both private and public agencies provide financial support and instructional staff.

Tom Davenports' Auto Demolished on Return from Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davenport and baby daughter, Pamela, were uninjured but their automobile was demolished Saturday in Kansas when they were returning home from Colorado.

Mr. Davenport, operator of Davenport's Jewelers, said an auto rammed the side of their car near Topeka, knocking their vehicle down a steep embankment into a utility pole.

The Davenports visited Mrs. Davenport's parents, Gen. and Mrs. Harry P. Storke, at Fort Carson, Colo.

Mr. Davenport reported that Gen. Storke will be transferred to the Pentagon building in Washington, D. C., Oct. 1 to become Public Relations director for the U. S. Army.

Rural Phones Being Changed To Dial Service

The General Telephone Co. of Illinois this week began changing Harrisburg rural areas to dial service, starting in Liberty community and converting one line at a time, Millard H. Lynch, district manager, stated today.

"That means that rural subscribers who already have dial phones can dial among themselves and can dial any other customers in the Harrisburg area whose phones have been changed to dial," he stated.

"For these subscribers to call a number in town, where conversion will not be complete for about two months, they merely dial '0' and give the operator the number wanted."

"For the user of the non-dial type telephone to call the rural area dial customer," he continued, "he should call the county operator and ask for the old number."

Mr. Lynch said special instructions have been printed along with all old and new rural numbers and these are being delivered to customers as their service is changed to dial.

Regarding the start of complete dial service from the Harrisburg exchange, Mr. Lynch said that the following has been accomplished to date:

The new building is being used, with dial equipment installed and in the process of being tested. Plant changes consisting of cable additions are nearly complete and new lines in rural areas have been completed.

Dials have been placed on 3,000, or 80 per cent, of the telephones in the urban area and men are working on this job continuously.

Boom Forecast, But Congress May Investigate

Move Aimed to Put New Life Into Housing Industry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Housing industry officials today forecast a possible low-cost housing boom if lenders accept the new low federal floor on down payments.

At the same time, the Federal Housing Administration faced a full congressional investigation because of the boost in mortgage interest rates that accompanied the down payment cuts.

The Eisenhower administration Monday authorized a 25 to 37 per cent reduction in minimum required down payments and a 1-4 per cent boost in interest rates on government-insured FHA loans. The move aimed at putting new life in the lagging housing industry.

The new regulations mean that for the first time in history a man can buy a $14,000 home with a down payment as small as $900 under the FHA program. Monday he would have had to put down at least $1,700.

But there are two possible hitch-est:—The man has to find a lender willing to pass out mortgage money on the new low down payment terms.

—Interest rates probably will be higher now on the mortgage regardless of the down payment required.

May Restudy Program

Industry officials said the new regulations probably will not mean any building upsurge this year because of the time lag in setting up housing projects.

However, they said if the regulations bring out more mortgage money into the market a low-cost housing boom is possible.

George S. Goodyear, National Association of Home Builders president, said the reduced down payments "could be the most significant step forward the FHA has made since its establishment in 1934."

However, Chairman Albert Rains (D-Ala.) of the House Banking subcommittee on housing legislation said Congress "must restudy the whole FHA program" because of the boost in interest rates from 5 to 5 1/4 per cent.

Rains said Congress may have to enact legislation "to stop the present administration's mania for continually raising interest rates."

Under the new regulations, which are effective immediately, the down payment schedule is 3 per cent of the first $10,000 of the mortgage; 15 per cent of the next $6,000 and 30 per cent on anything over that up to a limit of $20,000.

The old requirement was 5 per cent on the first $9,000 and 25 per cent on anything above that up to a ceiling of $20,000.

Politicians, Note

Editorial — BY BRUCE BROSSAT

The most remarkable thing about the International Geophysical Year which is under way is that it is being undertaken at all.

The "year" actually will cover 18 months. In that time scientists of some 60 nations will give the earth the most intensive checkup it has ever had in such a time span.

They will record coordinated measurements of the earth's crust, its interior, the oceans, the atmosphere and the forces beyond the atmosphere—cosmic rays, effect of sun spots and the like.

That the world's scientists should agree to the wisdom of this study is an inevitable tribute to their insatiable curiosity, their willingness to seek again and again for fresh understanding of this well-trod planet.

For centuries men have been putting the measure to this earth, sniffing its atmosphere, poking into its depths, climbing its heights, plumbing the oceans. No one imagines the task is complete, and of course it has been going forward steadily with the passing years.

Yet much vital measuring and discovering has long since been done, and it was quite an idea, therefore, that the scientists of many lands should cooperate in so intensive a survey as has now been launched.

Of necessity, much past measurement has been on a limited, more or less individual basis. An overall portrait of the earth and its interior has been gained by piecing together the assorted fragments.

The great virtue of the studies in the Geophysical Year is that through the fortunate collaboration of so many nations the findings will be fully and thoroughly coordinated. General conclusions may emerge from this study that otherwise might not come to notice for decades or longer.

One can't help wondering what would happen if politicians around the globe undertook the business of managing the world's practical affairs in the same cooperative spirit.

Paper and Air

President Eisenhower's program for greater air traffic safety, a comprehensive plan of necessity requiring gradual steps, is still a paper project in a nation whose airplanes are saturated.

Meantime, the airlines and their pilots in cooperation have quietly begun to operate a new safety system in the crowded triangle of air routes from Washington to New York to Chicago and thence to Washington.

Above the level of 9,500 feet—a zone occupied by virtually all four-engine planes of the more modern types—the pilots hereafter will fly at all times by instrument flight rules. This means they will be under the constant guidance of government air traffic control centers.

The object, of course, is to minimize the prospect of mid-air collisions on the pattern of last year's disastrous Grand Canyon mishap. At that time, one plane was following instrument flight rules but the other was using so-called visual flight rules, and alternative considerably handicapped by the poor vision afforded in most of today's pilot cabins.

This voluntary move toward air safety is a signal evidence of responsibility on the part of the airlines and their pilots. Not only should it promote safer travel now, but it should encourage all advocates of the President's broad, long-range plan to press for its swift adoption.

Illinois' Major Political Parties
Girding for Next Year's Campaign

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(Special)—Illinois' major political parties are girding for next year's campaign. The GOP got off to a start at a State Committee meeting here which unfolded George B. Healey, former Chicago newsman and a former press aide to the late U. S. Sen. Robert Taft, Ohio, in 1950. Democrats plan to form a downstate county chairman's association here on September 1.

Healey was presented to the state committee at a luncheon last month. Present were National Committeeman Morton H. Hollingsworth, Joliet, Gov. William G. Stratton, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, East Moline; Speaker Warren L. Wood, Plainfield; Mrs. Audrey Peak, Winchester, State Chairwoman and State Chairman Stanley H. Guyer, Rockford, presided.

Guyer announced that henceforth the Illinois Republican Party was going "to be in business every day of the year," that "there would be no more of this getting excited in one (election) year and not so active in (the off) year. Public relations to me is making your product known. And we have the product—the Republican Party—but we've got to sell it the year round."

Healey, a burly fellow, told the committeemen "we are working out a program and we will have a state office which will offer facilities in the way of facts. The thing is to do the right thing at the right time and tell the public about it." Guyer introduced Carpenter as "There is the man who ran like a scared rabbit" referring to Carpenter's winning reelection by more than 600,000.

Democrats are sparked by State Committeeman John R. Ascher, Paris, representing the 21st congressional district where the incumbent congressman is one of three downstate Democrats in Congress. Ascher has written to downstate county chairmen asking support to "build a stronger party in the 101 downstate counties" to offset the influence of Cook county in picking nominees for state offices.

Ascher said he has no quarrel with Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, that he is "proud of the great record Daley is making as mayor of Chicago" but that Daley's method of selecting state candidates "is another matter." He said "we want harmony but not at the expense of losing one election after another with the wrong candidate and issues."

"Our party in Illinois has elected state officers in only one campaign during the past ten or twelve years," Ascher wrote downstate county chairmen. "Yet there are few people in either party but what think that there were Democrats who could have been elected governor in 1952 or 1956. Let's face it. The Cook county leadership has failed."

State Rep. George S. Brydia, R., Prophetstown, is expected to be named chairman of the Mississippi Scenic Parkway Commission when its members meet here to organize next Wednesday. The commission, originally created in 1951, was continued for another two years by the recent General Assembly and given an appropriation of $12,500 for expenses. All but two of the 12-member commission have been named. Still to be appointed are two House Democrats. Two House Republicans, named by Speaker Warren L. Wood, Plainfield, last week, were Brydia, a reappointment, and Rep. Orval Hittmeier, Litchfield, a new member. Others who have been appointed by Governor Stratton are:

Sens. Miss Lillian E. Schlagenhauf, R., Quincy; T. MacDowning, R., Macomb; R. G. Crisenberry, R., Murphysboro; and Frank J. Kocarek, D., Chicago, all reappointments; and Paul S. Cousley, general manager of the Alton Evening Telegraph; Lovell Horton, mayor of Nauvoo; Ray W. Osterman, Rock Island Banker; and Fred A. Krever, Valmeyer, all appointed by Gov. William G. Stratton.

The Commission was created to promote and secure a scenic parkway in Illinois "which would be part of the proposed federal Canada-to-the-Gulf of Mexico highway along the Mississippi River. The commission seeks to establish a route which will connect historic and scenic sites in Illinois.

Put Safety Above Style for Homework

CHICAGO—(UP)—A style-conscious housewife can be a safety hazard at work in the home, O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois safety specialist says. A "safe" home dress, he said, should not be a fire hazard and should not catch on knobs and handles. Chances of falling are increased when skirts are too narrow or too full. A moderately full, gathered skirt generally gives enough room

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Our talents are legion, yet we use so few of them. Frequently we discover a potential talent. We play with it briefly and then drop it in favor of some momentary interest.

Many people can draw or sing or carve wood. The same people can cook or sew or design homes. Their talents are great while their accomplishments are so few. They do not take the time and effort to develop their abilities.

Hidden talents and unused abilities are like wasted funds. They are assets which are frozen. They might as well be buried in the ground as to be lost in the recesses of their minds.

God commands us to use our talents so that they may multiply for the benefit of mankind. As we multiply our assets we expand our usefulness not only to our fellow man but also to God and His kingdom.

First Iron-Clad Vessel

Admiral Yi Soon-Sin of Korea designed what some historians believe to be the world's first iron-clad vessel. Called the "Kobuk-Son," or "Turtle Ship," it was a 20-oar rowing galley.

for kneeling and stooping.

The housewife with a bent toward the glamorous in clothes would do herself a favor by avoiding long sashes, ties and generally frilly accessories, Hogsett said.

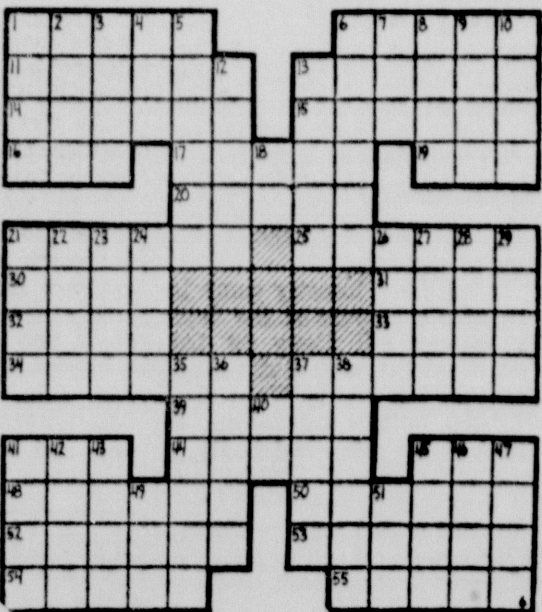

Sleeves also can be a hazard if they are too full, too wide or too long. And, he warned, avoid using a corner of a dress or apron as a potholder.

MRS. JOSEPH LEE SORAK, the former Miss Carolyn Sue DeMaris of Harrisburg, who was married on July 6 at Hammond, Ind.

DeMaris-Sorak Marriage Solemnized in Hammond, Ind.

Miss Carolyn Sue DeMaris of Hammond, Ind., formerly of Harrisburg, and Joseph Lee Sorak, Chicago Heights, were married in St. Joseph's Catholic church of Hammond, at 9 o'clock in the morning of July 6. The double-ring ceremony was performed before a candlelighted altar decorated with vases of white chrysanthemums. Traditional wedding music was played on the church organ.

The bride wore a white wedding gown of Chantilly lace and ruffled tulle, fastened with a fitted bodice trimmed with lace and small pearls. The skirt was floor-length, bouffant, and made of rows of tiny ruffles, overlaid by a peplum of lace, dropping to a deep point at either side. Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured with a crown of pearls and lace, matching the gown. Her bouquet was of baby gladioli.

Mrs. Louis Sobak, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served as her matron of honor and wore a white ballerina length dress, trimmed with black eyelet material. Her bouquet was of black-sprayed, white gardenias.

The bridesmaids, Andrea Gaydos, Dorothy Heckman and Janice Arnold, and the junior bridesmaid, Eliece DeMaris, sister of the bride, wore identical dresses, of pink nylon, ballerina length, and small circular hats trimmed in pink roses and veiling. Each carried a bouquet of pink-sprayed, baby chrysanthemums.

Louis Sobak, brother of the bridegroom, acted as his best man.

Douglas DeMaris, brother of the bride, Bob Barnes, Eddie Willis and Bill Boda, all of Hammond, were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the home of the bride. There was an evening reception held in the San Remo Ballroom, for 200 guests, honoring the bride and groom.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Sobak went to the Sherman hotel in Chicago and later made a ten-day trip through the Wisconsin Dells.

They are at home to their friends at 1014 F. est Hills avenue, Hammond, Ind.

The bride was graduated in June from the Hammond Technical high school, and is employed by Attorney William J. Nowak. Mr. Sobak served three years in the U. S. Navy, attended Indiana University for one year and is now an engineer for the Northern Indiana Public Service Company.

Harrisburg relatives attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Sisk Jr. and Dana Lynn Sisk; Mrs. Elsie Ferrell, Linda and Dennis Ferrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Hill of Detroit, Mich., returned to their home Monday following visits with relatives in this community. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Hill, the Lowell Hill family in Dorris Heights, and the William Hill family and Dorothy Robinson.

Officials, Out-of-Town Friends Attend Capel Rites

Illinois Supreme Justice Byron House of Nashville headed a group of out-of-county friends who attended the funeral of Kenneth C. Capel, prominent Harrisburg citizen, at the Gaskins funeral home chapel Saturday morning.

Other state officials who attended from out-of-county were Sam Parr, administrative assistant in the Department of Conservation; Robert Sparks, administrative assistant in the Department of Public Works and Buildings; Merton Knapp, official in the Department of Public Works and Buildings; and State Representative Gordon Kerr of Brookport.

Out-of-town friends also included Waldo Turner, who with John David Upchurch of Eldorado were Mr. Capel's roommates at St. Louis University; Mrs. Turner of Evansville; Mrs. Harry Taylor of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph

Father Pulls Ocelot from Back of 18-Month-Old Son

MIAMI (AP)—Police hunted an ocelot today which was wounded, perhaps mortally, by a father who wrestled it with bare hands from the back of his 18-month-old son.

John Vlad, 34, said the big cat attacked the boy as he played in Hutchinson of Carruthersville, Mo. Atty. Clark Miley of Taylorville, and Atty. and Mrs. Joe Hill of Benton.

Relatives who came from a distance were Lt. Joe Rude, nephew from Selfridge Field, Mich.; Atty. James Capel, cousin, of Champlain; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haisch and infant son of Waukesau, Wis. Mr. Haisch is a brother of Mrs. Kenneth Capel.

the back yard of his home, in ficting deep bites and scratches on the youngster's neck and his right ear. The boy was sprawled on his face with the ocelot on his back when Vlad arrived on the scene, Vlad said.

After tearing the cat loose and carrying the boy inside, Vlad grabbed a .22 caliber rifle and shot the ocelot, which had run up a tree. The cat then ran down the bank of a canal and disappeared, either falling in the water or entering the brush, Vlad said.

A search of the canal turned up no sign of the cat, which Vlad said wore a collar and apparently was a pet. Officers were trying to locate the owner of the ocelot.

Canadian Air Cools Nation

By United Press

A broad slab of Canadian air pressed down on two-thirds of the country today, causing a general buttoning of collars east of the Rockies, while isolated thunder-showers were forecast for widely scattered points ranging from Florida to the Pacific Northwest.

There were widespread splatterings in a downward sweep from the northern Rockies to New Mexico, but no heavy amounts such as those which caused flash floods in Las Vegas, N. M., early Monday. Rains starting Sunday night built up a wall of water which cascaded out of the mountains and tore away three earthen dams on the Upper Gullinas River.

Two persons, a preacher and his 10-year-old daughter were killed when the rushing waters swept away their car. Between 35 and 45 families had been forced to evacuate their homes, authorities said.

The cool Canadian air front which edged southward and left only Florida and southern Texas uncovered caused nighttime temperatures to drop to the 50s in the Great Lakes region, as well as the northern half of the Atlantic coastal area. Temperature readings in the 70s followed an "L" shaped course down the Plains area eastward through the Gulf Coast.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of Ulysses Partain, who died one year ago today, August 6, 1956.
I seem to see in the soft, dim light
A face I loved the best.
And think of him when the sun's ray
Goes down in the far-off west.
I miss you no less as the time passes on
Than I did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of my love still glowing.
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world.
Your love the best to recall;
For no one on earth can take your place.
You are still the dearest of all.
Sadly missed by wife Mabel.

In loving memory of our father, James Lynch, who passed away August 2, 1944, and our mother, Annie Lynch, who passed away August 7, 1951.
Gone are the faces we loved so dear,
Silent are the voices we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sadly missed by the children,

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

The fatigued driver does not realize the danger in which he is placing his life as well as the lives of others. The alertness and the reflexes of a fatigued motorist are not at the peak required to drive safely.

With summer having ended, the days are shorter and this will have its effect on driving during the evening rush hour. After a long day of work, the tired motorist will be additionally plagued with treacherous half-light, when visibility is poorer than it seems to be. The deceptive light, together with jammed traffic, makes a fatigued driver a dangerous one.

If a person insists upon driving when tired he should adjust his normal driving habits. His temper should be curbed. Speed should be reduced. And extra caution should be exerted.

If possible, a fatigued driver should pull off the highway and take a breather, or stop at a cafe or a restaurant for a cup of coffee or tea.

Rites Today for J. W. Johnson, Accident Victim

The funeral of James William Johnson, 25, of Harrisburg Route 2, was held at 2 p. m. today at the Social Brethren church on Route 45 at Carrier Mills with the church pastor, the Rev. Elmer Gisham, conducting the service. Burial was in Sunset Lawn cemetery.

Young Johnson was killed Saturday night in a two-car collision near Ledford.

Palbearers were Ronnie Arnold, Gordon Littrell, Glen Littrell, Bill Douglas, Bob Fields and S. Baker. Flowerbearers were members of the Sunday school class of his sister, Mrs. George Henshaw.

Coroner James Thornton said he was still investigating the crash and that an inquest date was indefinite.

Bomb Explodes In Havana Store

HAVANA, Cuba (U)—A bomb exploded in a Woolworth store in the heart of Havana today, killing one person and injuring five others. Some of the injured were reported in serious condition.

The rest of the city generally was quiet. There was no sign of a predicted general strike, since attempts to start a walkout apparently had failed.

In Santiago, a stronghold of rebel sympathizers, Americans who work there were sending their wives and children to safer places. It was reported that mounting tension in the capital city of Oriente province might explode into large-scale violence at any time.

Soviets Question About Other Bases In Open Skies Plan

LONDON (U)—The Soviet Union asked today why the Western disarmament proposal for open skies inspection did not include American and NATO bases in North Africa, the Near East, Turkey and Pakistan.

The question was the first official Russian reaction to the plan advanced last week at the five-power disarmament conference here by U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

It was put before today's session of the conference by Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin as one of three formal questions in which he sought further information about the West's plan.

Strike Blacks Out Welk Show on ABC

CHICAGO (U)—A surprise walkout of 800 television engineers in four major cities Monday night left affable handleader Lawrence Welk squeezing his accordion before idle cameras.

The strike blacked out the American Broadcasting Co.'s Chicago outlet, station WKBK, and stations in San Francisco, New York and Los Angeles.

Supervisory personnel moved in to the gap left by the walkout of members of the National Association of Broadcasting Engineers and Technicians and restored operations in an hour.

An ABC spokesman in Hollywood, where the Welk show originates, said the strike resulted from a dispute between the union and Philadelphia radio station WFIL, an ABC affiliate.

West Frankfort Man Charged With Assaulting Man, 85, and Wife, 72

BENTON, Ill. (U)—Henry Spain, 39, West Frankfort, was jailed here for allegedly assaulting an 85-year-old Parish man and knocking the man's 72-year-old wife off a porch.

State's Atty. Joe Hickman has charged Spain with mayhem in the attack on Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells.

Hickman said Mrs. Wells may have suffered permanent injuries in the assault. He said she may never be able to walk again.

Spain earlier pleaded innocent to charges of aggravated assault and was free on $1,000 bond. Hickman filed the new charges after he learned of Mrs. Wells' injuries.

Explains Army Reserve Program To Rotary Club

The Army Reserve program, the reason for it and what it is doing for the young men of this area, was discussed by Col. Harold R. James at the weekly meeting of the Harrisburg Rotary club Monday at noon.

Col. James, commanding officer of the 347th Replacement Battalion in Harrisburg, spoke of the world situation and the need for a large standing army, or a smaller army and reserve units ready for action at all times. He said that enlistment in the reserve units is voluntary and is open to men between the ages of 17 and 26. A young man can fulfill his military obligations by serving 6 months' active duty in the reserve, attend 2-hour weekly meetings for three years and attend camp for two weeks each year.

Col. James stated that the 6 months' active duty gives the young man a chance to see how he would like army life. Also, a 17-year-old can have the active duty part of his reserve training program over by the time the army would draft him, giving him a better chance to obtain a job and to stay on it without interruption.

The Harrisburg unit reached its limit of 36 men in January, 1956, and has been accorded honors for the high quality of training received by the men in the unit. There has been a turnover of about 3 to 1 with over 150 men receiving training.

Select County ASC Election Board

S. V. Caughey, chairman of the Illinois State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, announced today the appointment of L. B. Kimmel as chairman of the Saline county ASC county election board. Mr. Kimmel will be assisted in carrying out the duties of this office by John B. McFarland, of the Farmers Union; C. Ersel Vinyard, County Farm Bureau president; Thomas W. Morgan, SCS Work Unit Conservationist; and E. Ronald Coon, FHA county supervisor.

"The selection of these men to serve on the county election board has been made to provide a group of men who are representatives of all phases of agricultural operations in this county in order that they may in turn be able to select representative community election boards to be completed by August 20."

House Rejects Social Security for Firemen, Policemen

WASHINGTON (U)—The House has refused to make policemen and firemen eligible for social security benefits.

The House Monday voted, 120-84, in favor of the plan. But the measure failed because it was brought up under a procedure requiring a two-thirds vote for passage.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Herman P. Eberhart (D-Pa.), would have permitted policemen and firemen already covered by state or city pension plans to receive social security coverage.

Swing at Federal Spending

House Committee Chops Funds For Building Military Bases

WASHINGTON (U)—The House Appropriations Committee, taking one of its last swings this year at federal spending, today chopped 16 per cent from requested funds to finance this year's military construction and assorted minor government functions.

President Eisenhower had asked for $1,860,748,967. The committee recommended to the House an appropriation of $1,581,590,587, a cut of $279,158,380.

The lion's share of the request, of the funds allowed, and of the cut were applied to Army, Navy and Air Force plans for continued work on a world wide system of defense bases. The committee called for greater economies in this work and use of existing facilities wherever possible before new projects are started.

Cuts recorded by the committee today, if sustained by the House, would bring to $4,322,014,309 total savings claimed by the House so far this year against budget requests totalling $57,879,869,615.

About all that is left to be considered are the annual foreign aid request, which can't be considered until the aid authorization bill is finally passed, and funds for the Atomic Energy Commission, also tied up pending congressional action on an authorizing bill.

No doubt these requests will be cut too.

However, the claimed savings in appropriations don't mean that government spending will be cut by anything like the same amount. At best, the administration now hopes to shave President Eisenhower's $71,800,000,000 spending plans for the fiscal year—the record budget that set off the congressional economy drive—by only about one billion dollars.

For military construction the President asked $1,764,700,000. The committee allowed $1,521,500,000, a cut of $243,200,000. The sum allowed included $34,200,000, as requested, to continue work on the earth satellite.

Most of the rest of the bill was in supplemental funds to tide over various agencies which got their regular appropriations earlier.

Nicotine is poisonous, especially in its pure state.

Joe Allen Moore, Accident Victim, to Enter Peoria Hospital

Joe Allen Moore, son of Mrs. Mildred Moore, 123 West College street, who was injured in an automobile accident June 27, will enter the Worley Kendale hospital at Peoria for rehabilitation as soon as arrangements can be made.

Joe Allen and his mother express great gratitude to the friends and neighbors who have lightened the burden of his injuries with cards, letters, flowers and money. Particularly, they are thankful for the prayers that have been offered for his recovery. He is still paralyzed from the waist down, but is in good spirits and hopeful for a complete recovery. Their desire is that the community will continue with prayer and the messages of cheer that have contributed so much to the boy's improvement.

$110,000 classic is Hickory Smoke, but those closely allied with the harness racing sport are now looking at Smoke with turrowed brows. In the Hambletonian Preview last week at Cleveland, the horse broke stride twice and finished seventh in both heats. Silver Way won the final heat in 2:04 4-5.

Hoot Song, owned by Two Gaits Farm of Indianapolis is another horse expected to give Hickory Smoke plenty of competition. The black filly, sired by Hoot Mon, who set the two-minute Hambletonian record in 1947 has been making breaks, but her win in the $57,000 Yonkers Futurity shows that she has learned some good training lessons.

Two Darkhorses

The dark horse for the Hambletonian is still Storm Cloud, the Allwood Stable Colt who has four wins over one-mile tracks and four losses over half-mile tracks. The indication is, of course, that he does not like the shorter courses, but he will probably respond in his best form when he goes postward on the fast one-mile oval at Du Quoin.

Another dark horse is Section Man, owned by ABC Freight Forwarding Corp. He had not won a race in five starts until last week when he knocked off a decent field in an early closing event in 2:03-5. This favorable time definitely merits consideration for Section Man's possibilities in the Hambletonian.

Still, harness racing enthusiasts admit that the picture is changing weekly. Just when one horse begins to look most promising, over crops a couple of others to kick over the dope bucket. Examples of these are Abel Hanover, Avalon Lucy, Darn Merry and Joyce Gallon, all of whom have won in recent weeks. Then too, there is Cassin Hanover, a mare that figures to make a lot of trouble in the big race at Du Quoin. Already this year she has been timed at 2:03 4-5. Opinions will probably change some more when the Hambletonian eligibles compete at Springfield, Illinois and Sedalia, Missouri. The "sleeper" that has everyone wondering, including his owners, is Royal Rodney, owned by Hayes Fair Acres Stables in Du Quoin.

Wide Open Scramble

As one harness racing sports writer commented, it looks as if this year's Hambletonian at Du Quoin will be a wide open scramble with a strong possibility that Hoot Mon's two-minute mile record will be broken. This is the first year that Hambletonian eligibles will have had two weeks of racing on the one-mile tracks, prior to the classic event.

Plenty of Raceway Terrace seats, all with a full view of the track and completely shaded, are still available for the Hambletonian. Information and ticket orders may be addressed to Du Quoin State Fair, Box 182, Du Quoin, Illinois.

Drysdale Hurls Dodgers to 5-2 Victory Over Giants For His 9th Win of Season

By United Press

Long Don Drysdale, who celebrated his 21st birthday only two weeks ago, also has come of age as a major league pitcher.

The 6-foot-4 right hander was less than two years out of high school when he joined the Brooklyn Dodgers last season but still managed to win five games, four against the hated New York Giants.

With that one year of experience behind him, the Dodgers predicted big things for the lanky Californian this spring and young Don is living up to his notices.

Although he allowed 10 hits, including four to Willie Mays, Drysdale pitched a gem.

Eldorado Merchants Play at Mt. Vernon, Ind., Wednesday

The Eldorado Merchants will travel to Mt. Vernon, Ind., Wednesday night for a baseball game under the lights. All players making the trip are requested to meet in front of the Kroger store at 5 p. m.

Last Saturday the Merchants played at the Menard State prison and were defeated in a five-inning game, 1-0. The game was cut short due to two Little League games played before the prisoners for their entertainment and the game between the Merchants and the prison team had to be stopped at 3 o'clock to allow the prisoners to return to their cells.

Jim Deen pitched a very good game for Eldorado, allowing only three hits and no walks. He struck out five. John Henry Louis pitched for Menard and allowed three hits, walking two and hitting one batter.

Menard scored its lone run in the last of the fifth.

Sunday Eldorado traveled to Norris City and defeated a good team there, 15-6. The Merchants made 15 runs on 14 hits. Norris City scored six runs on 12 hits. Eldorado scored one run in the first, one in the third, one in the fourth, six in the eighth and six in the ninth. Norris City scored one in the fifth and five in the eighth.

The Merchants were led at bat by Deen with four for five. Thaxton had three for four, Pulliam two for three, Briddick and Ford two for five and Stone had one hit to round out the hit total for Eldorado. Joe Irvin and Deen pitched for the Merchants and Vineyard was the catcher. Kensall Mills and Douglas pitched for Norris City. Barter was the receiver.

dale fast-balled his way to a 5-2 victory over his favorite New York "cousins" Monday night in the only National League action. It was his ninth triumph of the season, tying him with Don Newcombe and Johnny Podres for the most victories on the Dodger staff.

Drysdale's career record against the Giants now stands at 6-1. He never has lost to them as a starter, suffering his lone defeat during a relief stint at the Polo Grounds earlier this season.

However, Mays almost ruined that gaudy record with another of his one-man-gam performances. Willie was involved in an automobile accident only hours before the game but proved he was okay in the third inning when he tagged Drysdale for a two-run homer that put the Giants ahead 2-1.

Hits Three Singles

Mays also picked up three singles along the way so when he came up with two men on and two out in the ninth inning, Dodger Manager Walt Alston yanked Drysdale in favor of Clem Labine, who retired Willie on an infield ground-er.

Ray Crone, pitching his first complete game as a Giant, was tagged for nine hits. The Dodgers tied the game at 2-2 in their half of the third, scored their decisive run in the fifth and then added a pair of insurance runs in the seventh.

In an American League day game, the Cleveland Indians snapped the New York Yankees' eight-game winning streak, 7-2. Gene Woodling drove in five runs with a single and a three-run homer, while Mike Garcia gave up nine hits in beating the Yanks for the first time since Aug. 3, 1955. Don Larsen was the losing pitcher.

U. S. Corn

About 85 per cent of the corn grown in the United States is kept on farms for feeding livestock, only 15 per cent being sold to industries for processing into many food and non-food products.

Columbus, Ohio, is the world's largest city named in honor of Christopher Columbus.

NOT SO BAD—With the other American League clubs out of the race, Al Lopez can afford to put his feet on the desk. His Chicago White Sox haven't strayed far off the New York Yankees' pace.

Vincenzo Wins All-American; Gene Littler Second With Record Round

CHICAGO — Roberto de Vincenzo, a lucky South American, escaped the Mexican earthquake to play in Tam O'Shanter's All American tourney and then survived a man-made quake to win the $3,500 top prize.

The man-made tremor was Gene Littler's final round 63. Nine under par, tying the 9-year-old course record set by Lloyd Mangrum, but the blazing finish earned him only second money as De Vincenzo coasted to a 70, two-under-par, for a 72-hole total of 273, 15 under par, for the first money.

Littler took second prize of $2,300 with a 277 total while Sam Snead, in second place heading into the final round, posted a 278 for $1,800, and Paul Harney took 279 for fourth and $1,500.

Played It Safe

De Vincenzo, scoring his first win in 15 tries at Tam O'Shanter's twin tournaments, said he played "safe." He revealed that he left Mexico City the night of the recent earthquake after driving his family to safety.

Littler's burst, which was the first time Mangrum's record has been tied, came close to a bigger prize than De Vincenzo picked up. The stock offer by the tourney sponsors for a new record is $10,000.

There was a four-way tie for fifth place among the men pros between Art Wall Jr., Pococo Manor, Pa.; Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla.; Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., and Bob Rosburg, San Francisco, at 281, each winning $1,150.

Fifth Tourney Win

Patty Berg, Chicago, posted a final round 75 to win the women pro division of the tourney for the fifth time with a total of 302. Her previous wins were in 1943 with 307, in 1945 with 312, in 1953 with 308 and in 1955 with 302.

Her $1,500 victory moved her from fourth to first place in earnings for 1957 with $9,768.

Jackie Pung, Honolulu, matched par with 304 for second money of $1,000, and Kathy Cornelius, Dayton, Ohio; Fay Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay; and Betsy Rawls, Spartanburg, S. C., each won $700 for being third at 305.

Clifford Ann Creed, 18, Opelousas, La., won the women's amateur title with a last-round 79 for 320. Tied for second were Sandra Clifford, Mexico City, and Lois Drake, Chicago, with 332.

Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, Tex., took the men's amateur title with 295, with Howard Everitt, Northfield, N. J., second at 296.

STAMPEDE AT BLUE SPRINGS

BY GENE OLSON

I seemed like everybody in Blue Springs talked about what was going to happen but nobody said anything much. I kept listening, though, just in case. Along toward the middle of the afternoon, quiet settled into the town like dust after the wind dies.

At first I thought it was the day. Prairie-hot, September-hot. There was wind but it was warm, from the southeast, and soggy-wet. I had both doors of the livery open and Owen was going to be mad about it. He was crazy, anyway, about it letting flies in. More likely let some out. I could see the wind swirling dust in Chicago St. I wished I was sitting in cottonwood shade by the Big Blue River and just watching that dirty water wash by. The shadows got long in the street and it cooled some. Still nobody stirred much. Owen came and I could tell he'd heard something. He blinked at me and went into the harness room. He didn't say a solitary word about the door being open.

I went up to the harness room. Owen lolled in his chair, mopping sweat off his face with a dirty red bandanna.

Owen said, "They're figurin' to take Dorsey off that train."

"Who says it's Dorsey?"

"Don't matter."

I figured it might be Dorsey, soon as word got around that trouble was stirring. I knew he got a sentence of 15 years over in Omaha City. If the Clement brothers planned to do anything to Pete Dorsey to make up for Barney Jethroe getting killed, they had to do it mighty soon. Even the Clements wouldn't likely reach over the walls of a United States prison. But I didn't think those government people in Omaha City would be foolish enough to send Pete through Blue Springs, if they knew anything about what happened. Maybe they didn't know. Pete wasn't likely to say, that's for sure. Pete Dorsey and Barney Jethroe went buffalo hunting one morning out in the basin. Barney was breaking in a young horse so he had Pete along to help. When Barney got his stand of buffaloes and was banging away, Pete held that skittish colt downwind where the buffaloes wouldn't smell him. A man afoot can get mighty close to a herd but he's got to have a good horse in case a stampede starts his way. A good horse, trained right, will stand and wait until the hunter can get to him. Not trusting his horse much, Barney had Pete along to hold him.

Trouble was, he shouldn't have had somebody along to hold Pete. Smelling blood from the down animals, that herd got upset and broke into a stampede aimed square at Barney. Barney ran for his horse to get out of there. But Pete got scared and lit out. Barney's horse rambled right along, leaving Barney afoot.

There were some folks watching from up on the ridge. They said Barney stumbled. That was the end of Barney Jethroe.

Barney worked for the Clements Dorsey knew that and never stopped moving, once he got out of the basin that morning. More than once the Clements went looking but never caught up to him. The Clements didn't talk about it, but it wasn't any secret that they had some business with Pete Dorsey, once they found him.

Only now it looked like in place of them finding Dorsey, the United States government was bringing Dorsey right back to them.

But maybe it wasn't just the Clements that were after Dorsey either. It was the talk that Barney's brother, Cole, was coming in from Chicago in a day or two. Cole grew up in Blue Springs but he went to Chicago to live. That was before Barney died. Cole knew all about Barney dying and how it happened and what Peter Dorsey had to do with it. Knowing how close Barney and Cole were, growing up together, you could see where a man wouldn't have to talk very hard to get Cole interested in Pete Dorsey's necktie party.

I backed out of the harness room just as Jordan Peterson came through the big door. Owen dragged himself out of the harness room. He said, "Howdy, Mr. Peterson. What's yours?"

"I want that bay again," Peterson said, looking back into the barn.

"You bet, sir," Owen said, heading back. Owen always waited on Jordan Peterson, ever since a little accident happened to his sassy daughter, Dora. He could be the biggest hide buyer in seven states but not to me. Just another tin-horn businessman in this little tin-horn town.

"You hear about Dorsey, Mr. Peterson?" Owen said as they ambled back.

Peterson stopped. I moved a few steps to hear. Peterson said, "What about Dorsey?"

"They say it's him that's to be pulled off the train tonight."

Peterson looked right hard at Owen then. "Dorsey," Peterson said, soft like he was thinking about it. He started back toward me. "I won't need the bay," he said to Owen. "Have you seen McNabb?"

Owen shook his head. "If he comes by, send him over to the yard."

"Sure thing, Mr. Peterson." Peterson walked out, fast. Owen came up to the front.

"Worried," Owen said, happy about it. "Wants to see the marshal, he does, and get ready for tonight."

I decided maybe Owen had about all the trouble from me he could handle for a while so I went back in the barn. No use telling Owen I was quitting early. Usually he wasn't of a mind to do me favors so I just had to go ahead and do myself some. I knew he couldn't find anybody else that would work for eight dollars a week and found, with him cutting it to six dollars in the bad part of the winter when things slowed up.

I sauntered down Missouri to Hook St. and sat myself down under the big box elder on the corner.

I sat under the box elder until the prairie turned dark yellow. I got up and stretched the stiffness out of my knees and tramped toward Chicago St. I went into Carter's store and moseyed around and looked at things. I could feel Amos over behind the counter staring at me.

"Somethin' for you, Pike?"

"Yeah. Meat and maybe a little coffee."

I took it and told him to put it on Owen's bill and then went out. When I got to the livery, Owen was gone. I went up the loft ladder to my room. I had a straw bunk in one corner of the loft that was kept clear of hay. I had a table, too, and a stove with a pipe running out the end of the barn. I had a chair I made myself. For walls I fixed up news-papers on two-by-four frames and that made me a room about eight feet square.

I lit my lamp and turned down the wick until it quit smoking, built a wood fire and started sweating from it. I went down the loft ladder and to the back corner of the barn and sure enough, the eggs were there in the clean straw.

I took two and went back up the ladder. Looked to me like if folks can't keep their chickens at home, they got to overlook somebody else eating a few eggs.

I swallowed as much as I could and had some coffee and was just about done when I heard Owen.

"Pike! You come down here!" I put my frying pan and cup back under the table and blew out the lamp and went out to the ladder. Owen said, "Come down and look."

I crawled down the ladder and looked where Owen pointed, thru the door toward Chicago St. Marshal McNabb was walking toward the barn, his head down, some papers under his arm. I walked toward the front of the barn I couldn't see what Owen was driving at. I said, "Marshal's going home to supper."

"He's goin' home to stay. He quit, boy. Told Jordan Peterson that they'd have to find them a new marshal."

John McNabb had been marshal of Blue Springs for a long time. With him out, you couldn't just turn around and find another marshal, not with trouble boiling up like it was. Maybe he just wouldn't have a marshal, I thought. Maybe it would be a long time before we had a marshal again. I said, "I'll be going."

Owen said, "You keep away from the tracks tonight."

I spun on my heels and looked at Owen. Wasn't like him to say that. I nodded, wondering, and walked away from there. I thought: Sure, that would be smart, for a 17-year-old fellow like me, and scrawny, too, to mix in a ruckus between Pete Dorsey and the Clements.

Not Planned
The slant of the Leaning Tower of Pisa was not planned. It sank into the soft earth on which it stands during the 200 years it was being built. The tower began to lean until it was 16 1/2 feet out of line and has tipped one foot in the last hundred years alone.
